REGIONAL COMPETITION DIRECTOR'S REPORT

Brian reinforced that you should follow the NCCC rulebook

New governors should make sure they received the K&K insurance packets. They are sent out every 3 years and should be handed down to the next governor. Waivers used must be 1999 or newer and may not be copies.

Brian also reported that you can borrow sanctions from another club, but that club's event chairperson must be in attendance at the event.

A new rulebook will come out in 2004. If you or your club has a request for a change to a rule, write it up quoting the paragraph and section, and submit to Brian as soon as possible.

REGIONAL EXECUTIVE'S REPORT

The new NCCC credit card application will be arriving sometime in May. Please remember to apply for this card and use it at least one time. This will benefit the East Region. George went over the details of this MBNA MasterCard.

George asked everyone to go over the by-laws change proposals and discuss them with your club.

Debbie Lindsey would like everyone to send back the orange Zip card, which came in your membership packet. Please ask all your members to send back the Zip card.

The Convention for 2002 is sold out. If your club is planning to attend, please let George know, so everyone can plan on being together.

George asked everyone to go over the by-laws change proposals and discuss them with your club.

Debbie Lindsey would like everyone to send back the orange Zip card, which came in your membership packet. Please ask all your members to send back the Zip card. There has been a poor response to sending this back.

George reported that the NCCC Finance Committee is running a positive cash flow.

George asked for a show of hands on how he should vote regarding paying a one time fee for a business membership to The National Corvette Museum, two voted against and the rest voted for.

Old Business

For the 2002 convention, 628 persons were registered by April 24, 2002. If you are planning to attend the convention, check the Blue Bars for directions.

The meeting for the 2003 convention in Hagerstown did not happen last month. George is planning a future meeting at the park in Hagerstown. In case of rain, the meeting will be held at the Clarion Hotel.

The 2003 convention will be advertised at the 2002 convention, Corvettes at Carlisle and Free State's Ocean City Week-end.

George showed the membership a 2003 convention shirt, which is available to the NCCC East Region people. If you are interested, please contact George.

George needs people to volunteer to work the NCCC booth at Corvette at Carlisle. Sixty (60) workers are needed for the weekend, to help promote NCCC NKF Raffle Corvette and The East Region's 2003 National Convention. George handed out a sign up sheet to return to him. Remember, for helping you will receive a one of a kind 2002 golf shirt.

Jeff Ports has the 50/50 Ocean City Fantastic Raffle tickets. Please contact him for tickets. The drawing will again take place at The Bay Café OC Bash Friday Nite. The time for the party may be an hour earlier this year to accommodate Free State's Friday Night party. A booth will be set up Saturday at the 125th Street show field to kick off the 2003 Convention. Workers will be needed to man this booth, if interested, please contact George.

New Business

The meeting place in St. Louis is going to expire in 2003. Bids are in for Nashville or St. Louis.

There are two bids for the 2004 National Convention; they are Road Runners in Las Vegas, June 5-11, 2004, and Suburban of Minnesota, in St. Cloud, July 24-30, 2004.
